Port Washed Harbison Mini is the pocket-sized version of Jasper Hill's signature spruce bark-wrapped bloomy rind cheese. As a woody, terroir-driven cheese, Harbison was the ideal choice for this place-driven collaboration with Sandeman, drawing a line across the sea connecting Vermont and Portugal. The cheese has a beautiful aroma of vanilla, woody oak, and a hint of viande fumée with rich tones of sweet cream and a lingering currant finish. Enjoy with a glass of Port, fresh berries, and a bite of dark chocolate.

Withersbrook Blue is an ice cider soaked, natural rind blue cheese made with raw milk from Jasper Hill Farm's own herd. This curious cube spends 60 days maturing in the Cellars at Jasper Hill where it develops distinctive veins of blue flora. From there, the cheese is loaded into a pouch along with a hearty pour of Eden Ice Cider. Withersbrook has a fruity, lactic profile with notes of honey and roasted hazelnuts. Pair with a thyme and pepper crusted ribeye or as an after-dinner treat with a glass of Vermont Ice Cider.
