Critical Communication

BACK TO SCHOOL

For all schools, universities, camps and seasonal businesses that are re-opening or closing for the season, please let your Black River Produce associate know the dates of the change.

Part of connecting you with amazing local products involves working with very small farms and vendors where even small changes have a big impact.

Letting our farms know of volume spikes and seasonal closings, allows them to better manage production, helping us ensure that you get the product you need, when you need it. Thank you!
